Hotline

From April 2022 to date, direct assistance through the hotline, we have covered 136 people. Thanks to the Helvetico-Polish Collaboration, we were able to provide several families with intervention accommodation, many to buy food, medicines, clothes, as well as pay for rent several times housing. Twice we bought small refrigerators and once a computer for a family of 7 whose children had no had a way to study.

Helping

children

We have established cooperation with the Voluntary Labor Corps from Radzyń Podlaski, where there are 40 students from Ukraine on their own, more than 20 of the poorest people (some are from the orphanage in Ukraine) we bought shoes, warm clothes for the winter, now we are organizing a trip for them to Krakow (December 5 and 6). All the time we collect cleaning products and cosmetics for them (OHP has no money for this).

Humanitarian aid

At least once a month, our volunteers travel to Lviv and the surrounding area to deliver humanitarian aid collected by various organizations.

Thanks to the Helvetico-Polish Collaboration funds the cost of this transportation.

Transportation

We paid for the transportation of people from Ukraine from aid stations to accommodation points, as well as occasionally beyond the borders of Poland (Switzerland, Germany).

"Doloni Dotyk"

With the support of the Helvetico-Polish Collaboration, we donated to the Ukrainian NGO "Doloni Touch", whose headquarters near Kiev was destroyed (after moving their headquarters to Lviv, 2 Vladimir Shukhnevich Street) equipment: computer, tablet, 5 x power bank, multicooker.

"Dobrze Urodzeni"

Association

We purchased 10 birthing packages for women who had to give birth in bunkers in Ukraine.

Humanitarian aid

Boots, tents and yellow recognition tape were donated to Kiev, for classmates of our employee, who were sent in sneakers to Zaporozhye.

Meeting in Bratnik

03.09.2022 there was a visit of Mr. Matthis Behrens to Bratnik, during which we met directly and discussed our cooperation.
